Tournament system:

Each generation has eight squads competing, divided into two groups of four teams. Every team will play three games in the group phase with the other three squads in the group. A win in a group phase counts 3 points, draw – 1 point, and lost game has no points. If two teams have same points, better ranging will have the team with better result in the mutual game. If they drew the game, then better ranging will have the team with better goal difference and in case of same GD, the one with more goals scored.

Best two teams in the grope stage will qualify the semifinal. Group A first place will play with the Group B second place, and Group B winner with group A runner up. Winners in the semifinal games will play FINALE, and teams that lost semifinals will play for 3rd place. Teams that will end up thirds in the group phase will play for 5th place and teams that will end up fourth in the group phase will play for the 7th place. Tournament will be played according the rules of the Football federation of Macedonia.
